

'Working together towards a Zero Emissions Community'

TARGET YOUR CUSTOMERS BY PLACING AN ADVERTISEMENT IN THE ENERGY INNOVATION CO-OPERATIVE'S GREEN GUIDE!

The Green Guide is a Colour booklet listing local businesses serving Bass Coast, South Gippsland and Cardinia that provide products and services to encourage the take-up of renewable energy, help households and businesses save energy reduce their carbon footprint, and live and work more sustainably. The current guide can be viewed here.

Printed copies are made available to the public free of charge at Co-op events and events at which the Co-op is participating. It is also promoted in Co-op newsletters.

To advertise your business in the Green guide please complete the application form that can be found here.

Distribution:

4000 colour hard copies of past issues were printed and distributed throughout Bass Coast, South Gippsland and Cardinia Shires at outlets, festivals and Energy Innovation Co-operative events.

The Guide is available for viewing and download from the EICO-op Website:
www.eico-op.com.au

Notice of the issue of the new version will be emailed to our contact list of members and non-members (approximately 700 total), and to any new contacts as they are made.
